JESSE M. FURMAN, United States District Judge:

On January 7, 2022, the Government filed a letter addressing various issues, including those raised at the pretrial conference held on December 20, 2021. See ECF No. 670. In response to that letter, the Court orders as follows:

- The Government shall file a letter on January 19, 2022:
 - Providing an update as to items 1, 4, 6, and 8.3.
 - Explaining why the FBI does not have any data responsive to the March and May 2017 search warrant applications for prospective GPS location information described in item 2.1.
 - Providing an update on whether (and when) the Government will be able to provide the Defendant with an extracted copy of the SC1_1/root/volume discussed in item 3.
- In item 8.2, the Government states that additional information can be provided to the Court in a classified setting. The Government shall promptly provide that information to the Court in an appropriate manner.
- Standby counsel shall file a letter by January 19, 2022, addressing their role in connection with Defendant's appeals, including but not limited to facilitating his appellate filings, and whether these issues can and should be addressed by the Court or whether they should be left to the Court of Appeals to address.

- Any response to the Government's proposal regarding the CIPA Protective Order, see item 7, shall be filed by January 25, 2022. Defendant may seek an extension of this deadline if necessary.

SO ORDERED.
